Position: Community Organizing Intern
Reports to: Executive Director
Location: Negotiable
Position type: Internship
Compensation: Paid, 15-20 hours/week - $10/hour up to $500/month
Deadline for submission: May 15, 2017
Start Date: June 1, 2017 to August 31st, 2017

The League of Oil and Gas Impacted Coloradans (LOGIC) is seeking an intern for summer 2017 to focus on community organizing on Colorado’s Front Range.

About LOGIC: LOGIC was founded in late 2015 by community groups from across Colorado. LOGIC’s mission is to bring impacted and concerned Coloradans together to bring about oil and gas policy solutions that prioritize public health, safety, and natural resources – addressing the impacts of oil and gas development. Learn more about us at www.coloradologic.org.

The Position: The community organizing intern will work directly with the Executive Director to execute organizing programs across the Front Range. The organizing intern will help to build capacity and enhance LOGIC’s Neighbor-to-Neighbor program in bringing Front Range neighborhood groups together for a series of informational programs and events.

Responsibilities:
- Work with LOGIC members and community leaders to take action to achieve positive change.
- Plan and host LOGIC Neighbor-to-Neighbor events.
- Organize and work with volunteers to develop and implement community action plans.
- Table at special events representing LOGIC.
- Track and enter LOGIC supporters in a constituent management system.

Qualifications:
- Completion of at least two years of study at an accredited college or university.
- Excellent interpersonal skills, including writing and public speaking.
- Passion for environmental justice.
- Proficiency in office computer programs (Word, Excel, PowerPoint), web research and social media.
- Strong organizational skills.
- Experience in event planning.
- Flexibility – some evening/weekend work will be required.
- General knowledge of oil and gas issues in Colorado a plus.
To Apply: Send a 1-2 page letter describing your interest in the position and why you think you’d be a good fit, resume, current college transcript, and three references to Sara Loflin, Executive Director of LOGIC, at sloflin@coloradologic.org by May 15th, 2017. Please include “Community Organizing Internship” in the subject line. Select candidates will be contacted for an interview. No phone calls, please.
